

⁹ "Remember the former things long past, For I am God, and there is no other; I am God, and there is no one like Me, ¹⁰ Declaring the end from the beginning, And from ancient times things which have not been done, Saying, 'My purpose will be established, And I will accomplish all My good pleasure'; ¹¹ Calling a bird of prey from the east, The man of My purpose from a far country. Truly I have spoken; truly I will bring it to pass. I have planned it, surely I will do it.

Isaiah 46:9-11

Objectives

- Learn about God's providence in the eras of US History
- Discover examples of people who followed God's standard or failed to do so.
- See the Truth of God in action with values and principles for living understood
- Development of a proper understanding of America's godly heritage and respect for citizenship responsibilities

Classroom Expectations

1. Abide by all rules listed in the student handbook
2. Refrain from communicating and leaving seat without permission
3. Be prepared with proper materials: Notebook, The American Republic for Christian Schools textbook, blue or black pen or pencil (sharpened before class).
4. Be seated before the bell rings with text and notebook out, ready to begin class work (having used the restroom if need be).

With Christ as our motivation and example, our goal as a class is to maintain an atmosphere of excellence both in academics and attitude. Disrespect for authority and other students will not be tolerated.

Guidelines & Policies

1. All work must be completed neatly and on time. Work may be in pen or pencil, but all projects and assignments are due on the date assigned regardless of illness, doctor appointments, etc. Homework and other assignments will be posted on the classroom white board. Late unexcused work will be graded with a letter grade loss each day it is late.
2. Students are expected to record class notes and answers to homework questions in a notebook dedicated for this class.
3. Missed tests or quizzes are to be made up after school or during another prearranged time since participation in classroom instruction is vital. Students will have as many days to make up work as they are absent (see handbook for details).
