

Charley Maxey
Mr. Erhart
Bible
12-7-08
Poem

ZEAL

(Psalm 8-2

From the lips of children and infants you have ordained praise
because of your enemies, to silence the foe and they avenger)

Jesus was a man of God, who had a great passion,
This passion was called zeal oh yes that was His fashion,

One day he entered the temple gates,

And what He saw oh no it was not great,

He saw people of Jerusalem, Nazareth, and Galilee,

Turned the house of His Father in to a mockery,

He over turned tables of moneychangers and of doves,

He can't help what He loves,

He told the people, "This is a house of prayer,"

"Not a robbers den, why do you dare?"

The blind and the lame came to the temple to see,

Then they were healed and filled with great glee,

The chief priests of the temple oh yes they did see,

Saw miracles of God,

This did not make them happy,

The children shouted so joyfully,
To the Son of David for He is Christ the King,
The priest in the temple said, "Do you hear what they are saying,"
And Jesus responded, "Have you never read,"
From the lips of children and infants you have ordained praise instead,
And He left that night to Bethany,
And had a great sleep oh how this story comforts me,
This story has taught me so much,
Oh yes I found a cross reference,
In my Bible journal one day,
Oh yes it made me feel great,
It was Psalm 8.